DANIELS PRAISES SIX NAVAL HEROES

Six members of the United States navy forces have been commended by Secretary Daniels for valor and devotion to duty, it was announced today. They are: Alonzo E. Seright of Kansas City, Kan.; Adam J. Bettinger, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Ernest L. Pemberton, of New Haven, Conn.; Otto A. Valfer, of New York City; Louis Friedman, of San Francisco; and Frederick L. Cook, of New Orleans, La.

Seright, by diving repeatedly, saved the life of Private H. H. Smith, of the first force, who had fallen overboard, and was partially embedded in the mud under fifteen feet of water. Bettinger and Pemberton were instrumental in saving from drowning a member of the crew of a British ship in foreign waters. Valfer and Friedman, both were members of the first force, saved the bathys, and Cook, when the American schooner Madrugada was sunk by a German submarine on August 10, 1918, was the only man to recover all hands had left, sending out SOS calls. The last man to leave the vessel, he jumped overboard and managed to reach one of the small boats.

MARKS OF FINGERS ON WIFE'S THROAT

KENNEBUNK, Me., Aug. 30.—The autopsy on the body of Mrs. Minnie Stevens Hall showed marks on her throat as of a clutching human hand.

This was one of several accusations hurled at the Rev. Henry H. Hall, pastor of the Union Baptist Church at Wells Depot, by County Attorney Franklin R. Chesley, of York county, at the preliminary hearing of Hall in the Kennebunk opera house on the charge of wife murder.

SENATE SUFFRAGE STRATEGY RESUMED

Strategic warfare has been resumed between Senate suffrage advocates and antis. Oddly, the suffragists don't just know which of two positions would give them the strategic upper hand.

Republican Senators in caucus recently urged immediate action on the suffrage resolution. Suffrage leaders are now saying that the "antis" are trying to trap them into setting a day for voting, and then beating the resolution.

"Antis" are frankly eager for a voting date, declaring they will vote for the suffrage resolution "apprehension, much as they would like to enhance a vote. The whole matter may be settled for the time being by agreement to have a series of three-day sessions while the Senate Finance Committee considers the revenue bill, thus precluding any danger of a vote."
